

THE BUCKEYE RECORD

A GIST OF NEWS FROM VARIOUS CITIES IN OHIO.

STATE CAPITAL CULLINGS.

Columbus, Apr. 28.—Following are among the decisions handed down by the supreme court: Sol. I. Schwarz vs. Joseph Pesta, Cuyahoga county, judgment affirmed; the C. H. & D. Railway Co. vs. Harry Frye, Allen county, judgment affirmed.

Former Congressman John J. Lentz has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court, scheduling liabilities of $37,082, of which $13,300 is secured, and assets of $20,645. Most of the liabilities resulted from transactions growing out of business dealings with former Gov. George K. Nash, Judge Tod B. Hallaway, secretary to former Gov. Herrick, and others interested in the United States Wringer Co., which failed 15 years ago. These three men were held for most of the company's debts.

The Central Passenger association will give no reduced rates over Ohio railroads at the time of the state fair in September. In a letter to Secretary A. P. Sandles of the state board of agriculture, F. C. Donald of Chicago, commissioner of the association, states that as a majority of the people who will attend the fair live within 75 miles of Columbus, the request for a cheap fare is not urgent and cannot be allowed. It is hoped that the matter may be brought up again before the time of the fair and a favorable decision reached.

At the request of Prosecutor Carl W. Lentz of Montgomery county, the Columbus police have taken into custody Samuel Yates and Mrs. Evelyn Bolland of Dayton, who are wanted as witnesses before the grand jury of Montgomery county, which, according to information furnished here, will make another investigation of the facts surrounding the murder of Elizabeth Fuldhart, a Vandalia, O., girl, whose body was found in a cistern at Dayton last January. Yates said he came to Columbus to search for a job as a painter. He told the officers that Mrs. Bolland had returned to Dayton to appear before the grand jury, but the woman later was arrested while she was en route to the police station to visit Yates. Both were taken to Dayton.

The supreme court decided that the appointment of Judge Willis S. Metcalf of Palmyra to succeed Judge Jerome B. Burrows of that city as judge of the circuit court in valid and that he is entitled to hold the office. Gov. Harris made the appointment. Gov. Harrison appointed Thaddeus E. Hoyt of Ashtabula for this office, contending that Gov. Harris did not have the right to fill the vacancy. The supreme court sustained the demurrer of Metcalf to the petition of Hoyt and dismissed the said petition. The decision is reported. The decision upholds the contention that Gov. Harris had the right to make the appointment.

Second Marriage Was Short.
Columbus, O., Apr. 28.—Milton Mounts, 70, civil war veteran, was taken back to the Dayton soldiers' home yesterday to spend the rest of his days. Just three weeks ago Mounts was brought here by a daughter and through the pleadings of his children, he and his wife were remarried. They were divorced 30 years ago, since which time they had not seen each other. Mounts is alleged to have abused his wife. The matter was reported to the authorities and the new dream of happiness soon shattered.

"Wets" and "Drys" Lock Horns.
Chillicothe, O., Apr. 28.—With big meetings held by both "wet" and "dry" adherents in different parts of the city last night, the campaign was closed preparatory to the voting to-day in the local option election which has stirred Ross county for a month past. Defying a proclamation of Mayor Yaple, the non-voters' parade was held yesterday afternoon, 2,500 being in line, the paraders for the most part being women and children.

Found Gold In Toe of Boot.
Findlay, O., Apr. 28.—Jesse Hudson, while employed in cleaning up an old house on a farm near St. Mary's yesterday, discovered in the toe of a boot he intended to carry them to an old ash heap and burn them. On his way he thought one of them was unusually heavy, and he investigated. Snugly tucked in the toe of one of the boots he found a small wooden box. In it was $200 in gold coin.

Shoe Workers' Strike Dead.
Portsmouth, O., Apr. 28.—At a general meeting last night it was voted to declare off the shoe workers' strike in all factories except the Selby plant, against which it was originally declared by the last night's vote. Several hundred men will return to work. The Selby plant is now operated by non-union labor.

Found Dead on Tracks.
Sandusky, O., Apr. 28.—Peter D. Ward was found dead by the side of the Cleveland & Southwestern tracks near Birmingham yesterday morning with a bullet hole in his head and a revolver in his hand.

Italian Banker Convicted.
Cleveland, Apr. 28.—A. F. Bonelli, proprietor of the Banca Bonelli, was convicted yesterday in Judge Strimling's court of embezzling $140. Witnesses said that total arrearages amounted to $13,000.

Teaching Nothing.
Dr. Howe, president of Case school, Cleveland, never fails to express his vexation when he has a student call the zero of mathematics nothing. One of the students, Morgenstern by name, would almost invariably read an equation like this, x plus y equals 9, as follows: "X plus y equals nothing." One day Dr. Howe lost his long-enduring patience. "See here, Morgenstern, let me show you the difference between zero and nothing."

With this Dr. Howe wrote a big 0 on a blackboard. "This," he said, "is zero." Then erasing the 0, he added: "and this is nothing."—Liquorist's.

TURKEY'S NEW RULER.

ABDUL HAMID II. LOSES THRONE

MEHMET RESCHAD EFFENDI IS PROCLAIMED RULER OF TURKEY.

PEOPLE ARE WELL PLEASED

Conditions in Asiatic Turkey Show Little Improvement—20,000 People Are Destitute in the Village of Adana.

Constantinople, Apr. 28.—The reign of Abdul Hamid II. ended yesterday with his deposition and the accession of his brother, Mehmed Reschad Effendi, as Mehmed V., a variation of "Mahomet," it being considered inappropriate to assume the precise name of the prophet. Mehmed V. is the 25th sovereign of Turkey, in male descent, of the house of Osman, the founder of the empire, and the 29th sultan since the conquest of Constantinople.

The two houses of parliament, meeting as a national assembly, in the forenoon approved the decree of deposition, which was read by the Sheikh-ul-Islam, chief of the Ulema and supreme judge on ecclesiastical questions. The document recited that Abdul Hamid's acts were contrary to the sacred law, and set forth a long list of crimes, the whole making a terrible indictment. The assembly chose Mehmed Reschad as sultan and appointed committees to notify the deposed sovereign and his successor of its action. The firing of 101 guns announced to the waiting people that a new sultan had been proclaimed.

The ceremonies connected with the transfer of the power were simple. The newly chosen ruler came from his palace in Galata through streets lined with troops and cheering thousands and took the oath at the war office. He then proceeded to the parliament and later went to the Dolmabahce palace as head of the empire, where for so many years he had been practically a prisoner. Martial law was relaxed last night and the people gave themselves over to celebrating the victory of the Young Turks' party and the end of Abdul Hamid's reign. Many buildings were illuminated and thousands of rounds were fired by the soldiers for joy. General good behavior prevailed.

The question of the new cabinet has not yet been settled, but it is thought Ahmed Riza will be premier, while some of his associates will probably be Hilmi Pasha, the former premier, as minister of the interior; David Bey as minister of finance; and Rifaat Pasha as minister of foreign affairs.

Sketch of New Sultan.
A person who is well acquainted with Mehmed Reschad Effendi, the new sultan of Turkey, gives the following sketch of him:
"He is tall and well proportioned, but inclined to stoop. His features are regular, but he has a hooked nose like that of Abdul Hamid. His eyes are blue and his hair and beard are light red. His manners are very gracious and easy, and he is exceedingly generous and kind. He is not at all fanatical, but is sincerely religious. He plays unusually well on the piano and is a great admirer of classical music."

"Like the deposed sultan the new ruler of Turkey is a good draftsman and he sketches well. He has two wives and several children, three of whom are boys. His wives are both highly educated and are the daughters of distinguished pashas. They dress at home in the French fashion."

Capital Punishment in Germany.
Although little is heard outside Prussia of capital punishment within the kingdom, the law is by no means a dead letter. In seven years there have been 88 executions, ten of the condemned being women. Silesia heads the list with 21 executions, followed by Brandenburg, Posen and Rhineland. No executions take place in Berlin, the condemned being taken to the prison at Ploetzensee, in Brandenburg, where they have a standing gallows.

Conditions in Asiatic Turkey Bad.
Beirut, Apr. 28.—Latest advices received here show little improvement in conditions throughout the disturbed regions of Asiatic Turkey. Every day adds to the sufferings of the refugees and to the death list. A dispatch from Adana says that the fires have been extinguished, but there is great fear of further incendiarism. The American mission buildings, the Catholic sisters' school and one Gregorian church have been saved. The Jesuit and Armenian Catholic and Protestant churches and schools have been burned. Twenty thousand persons are destitute and there are few supplies of any kind. Doctors have been sent to the town from Beirut and Tarsus.

Hadjin is still besieged. It has withstood several attacks made upon it from the mountain tops. All of the American missionaries in that town were safe up to Monday night. No direct word has been received from them to-day. Thousands of refugees have arrived at Latakia and the governor, with the few soldiers at his command, is doing his utmost to prevent disorders. But the Moslem community is strong and he is meeting with much opposition.

Latakia, Apr. 28.—Five thousand refugees are quartered here, having come in from Kersal and other points in the district north of Latakia, where several thousand Turks from surrounding villages have burned towns and killed many Armenians. The refugees are being sheltered in the barracks and the Latin and American missions.

The massacres first broke out in the district north of Latakia on April 23, when thousands of Turks swept down upon the Armenian sections of the town of Kersal and other places, burning all the buildings, killing many of the men and driving others, together with women and children, to the mountains. Many of these eventually reached Latakia either by land or sea. All were in wretched condition, without food and worn out from their flight. Although the governor of Latakia and the missions are doing everything in their power to relieve the distress, there are not sufficient funds to accomplish this and help is needed at once. There are 6,000 homeless refugees in Latakia at present and many others are in hiding in the mountains, suffering great privation. Miss Effie Chambers, one of the missionaries at Kersal, is safe, news to this effect having reached Dr. J. M. Balph, who is in charge of the missions at Latakia.

ANTHRACITE MINERS CONVE

Ratify Proposed Agreement that is Expected to Be Signed by Mine Operators and Miners.

Scranton, Pa., Apr. 28.—The tri-district convention of the anthracite mine workers, which will to-day ratify the proposed agreement that is expected to be signed by the representatives of the men and the mine operators in Philadelphia on Thursday, met yesterday afternoon, organized and adjourned until this morning, when the committee of seven will lay the agreement before the delegates.

The terms of the proposed agreement have not been made public, but it is known that they are substantially as follows: Renewal of the old agreement for another term of three years; new work to be paid for at the same rate as old work under the strike commission award; the right of men to appeal to the conciliation board in case they are discharged with or without cause; commanding the union to post notices and collect dues at the collieries; giving the men the right to take up grievances with mine officials before appealing to the conciliation board; providing for the issuing of uniform pay statements to the men.

Cultivate Agreeableness.
The happy gift of being agreeable seems to consist, not in one, but in an assemblage of talents tending to communicate delight; and how many are there, who, by easy manners, sweetness of temper, and a variety of other undisturbable qualities, possess the power of pleasing without any visible effort, without the aid of wit, wisdom or learning, nay, as it should seem, in their defence; and this without appearing to know that they possess it.—Cumberland.

NATION'S CAPITAL A NUTSHELL

EX-REPRESENTATIVE BABCOCK OF WISCONSIN CLAIMED BY DIATH.

TARIFF DEBATE IN THE SENATE

Prospects for President's Proposed Trip Through the West During Coming Summer Assume Brighter Hue.

Washington, Apr. 28.—The most important happenings in the national capital yesterday were:
Representative Joseph W. Babcock of Wisconsin, who was at one time chairman of the national Republican congressional committee, was claimed by death.

Official dispatches confirming the deposition of Abdul Hamid as sultan and the proclamation of his brother, Mehmed Reschad Effendi, as "Mehmed V.," have been received at the Turkish embassy.
Speeches for and against a protective tariff occupied the day's session of the senate, Mr. Bailey of Texas continuing his remarks begun Monday, in which he was supported in the main by Mr. Gore of Oklahoma. Mr. Scott of West Virginia discussed the subject from the Republican standpoint.

Prospects for the president's proposed trip through the west during the coming summer assumed a brighter hue, Chairman Tawney of the house appropriations committee announcing after a conference with Mr. Taft that he would offer a bill appropriating $25,000 for the president's traveling expenses for the current fiscal year.

The original manuscript of "The Star Spangled Banner" has been located by the Francis Scott Key Memorial association, which is endeavoring to secure possession of it. While it is improbable that the owner of this precious relic, a Baltimore woman, will consent to permanently part with it, the association hopes to be able to borrow the manuscript to place on exhibition at the old Key mansion in Georgetown, D. C.

A $50,000 Conflagration.
New Orleans, Apr. 28.—Fire last night, which threatened for a time to extend throughout an entire block in the center of the wholesale district and which brought out the whole fire department of the city, was confined to the building occupied by the Importers' Coffee Co. The loss is about $50,000.

Circumstances and Cases.

"I want you," said Mr. Dustin Stax, "to show that this law is unconstitutional. Do you think you can manage it?"
"Easily," answered the attorney.
"Well, go ahead and get familiar with the case."
"I'm already at home in it. I know my ground perfectly. It's the same law you had me prove was constitutional two years ago."
